History of SSKRU

SISAKET RAJABHAT UNIVERSITY : Our university was established in 1997 and covers an area of about 250 acres and is currently under the administration of Assistant Professor Kanok Tosuratana in his capacity as President of the University. The aim of the University is to develop human resources academic and intellectual ability to their fullest potential. While it encourages pursuit of knowledge it also emphasizes the importance of high moral values, ethics and decent behavior for who are associated with the University. Research work is our priority, particularly research linked to sustainable development at a local level and which can help conserve and promote the arts, crafts and culture unique to the region.

His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej awarded the royal name as Rajabhat for the formally approved it in the 2004 SSKRU act which was enacted and promulgated in the Royal Gazette establishing Sisaket Rajabhat University on June-14, 2004 under the Commission on Higher Education, Ministry of Education.
